THE CHRISTMAS STORY EDITION

This no-rehearsal skit is a super fun way engage your family and friends with the story of Jesus' birth! This year, they won't be just listening to the Scriptures being read, but they'll be acting it out as you narrate.

SADDLEBACK PARENTS

HELPING PARENTS WIN!

Step into the Nativity story like never before! No rehearsals needed. Assign roles, embrace the crazy, and watch the story of Jesus' birth unfold as each person brings their character to life! It'll be a joyful, interactive celebration that will create unforgettable moments for your family.

3 SIMPLE INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Explain what will be happening

2. Assign each person one or more characters (depending on how many are participating)

Augustus | All/Everyone (have everyone present play this part) | Joseph | Mary | Jesus

Shepherds (2 or more) | Sheep (2 or more) | An Angel of the Lord | Army of Heaven (many people)

3. Begin Narrating the story one verse at a time (as the Narrator, add crazy verbs and silly things to say/do... i.e. – you could read verse 1, “At that time the Roman emperor, Augustus, decreed that a census should be taken throughout the Roman Empire.” [after Augustus repeats his line, you say “he decreed it by screaming” after Augustus screams his line, you say “now he whispered the decree” then “now he said it normal but with a British accent”]. Also, you could have the shepherds pet the sheep, feed the sheep cookies, or play rock, paper, scissors with the sheep.)

The Birth of Jesus - Luke 2:1-7 (NLT)

1 At that time the Roman emperor, Augustus, decreed that a census should be taken throughout the Roman Empire.

2 (This was the first census taken when Quirinius was governor of Syria.)

3 All returned to their own ancestral towns to register for this census.

4 And because Joseph was a descendant of King David, he had to go to Bethlehem in Judea, David's ancient home. He traveled there from the village of Nazareth in Galilee.

5 He took with him Mary, to whom he was engaged, who was now expecting a child.

6 And while they were there, the time came for her baby to be born.

7 She gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him snugly in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was no lodging available for them.

The Shepherds and Angels - Luke 2:8-20 (NLT)

8 That night there were shepherds staying in the fields nearby, guarding their flocks of sheep.

9 Suddenly, an angel of the Lord appeared among them, and the radiance of the Lord's glory surrounded them. They were terrified,

10 but the angel reassured them. “Don't be afraid!” he said. “I bring you good news that will bring great joy to all people.”

11 The Savior—yes, the Messiah, the Lord—has been born today in Bethlehem, the city of David!

12 And you will recognize him by this sign: You will find a baby wrapped snugly in strips of cloth, lying in a manger.”

13 Suddenly, the angel was joined by a vast host of others—the armies of heaven—praising God and saying,

14 “Glory to God in highest heaven, and peace on earth to those with whom God is pleased.”

15 When the angels had returned to heaven, the shepherds said to each other, “Let's go to Bethlehem! Let's see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about.”

16 They hurried to the village and found Mary and Joseph. And there was the baby, lying in the manger.

17 After seeing him, the shepherds told everyone what had happened and what the angel had said to them about this child.

18 All who heard the shepherds' story were astonished,

19 but Mary kept all these things in her heart and thought about them often.

20 The shepherds went back to their flocks, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen. It was just as the angel had told them.
